Top 3 national riders in each of the above categories – based on the EWS Global Rankings (which includes the EWS, EWS Continental and EWS Qualifier races) as of the second Monday in August [August 12, 2019] – will be invited to represent their Nations Team.

The 4th rider in each category of the EWS Global Rankings as of the selection date is the official reserve / substitute.

There must be at least one rider in a category who has qualified in order for wildcard applications to be considered for that category. A team cannot be composed entirely of wildcard entries.
